INSULATING FABRICS

Thanks to the new LCC (Life Cycle Control) Project Carvico and Jersey Lomellina, set off on a long, ethical journey aimed at promoting sustainability, innovative processes and recycled raw materials.

A new range of fabrics made with HOLLOW POLYAMIDE was created to reduce the consumption of raw materials and to create ultralight high performance garments.

LCC an infinitely ethical project for high performance fabrics.
